April 16, 2018 SOCCR
2-3 p.m.

In attendance: David Weinshilbourn (chair), Deborah Pansius, Sonny Huang

1. D. Pansius wondered if academic integrity and the CRC honor code could be incorporated into distance learning and CANVAS for quizzes, tests and various assignments. D. Weinshilbourn agreed to reach out to G. Beyrer to inquire about this possibility.
2. Constituents edited and revised the AIC's description & charge. Taking into account suggestions from E. Bond, Pansius, Huang and Weinshilbourn crafted a new description & charge that included specific examples of AIC work and the intent to generate representation across the campus
3. AIC members determined that a fall semester professional development workshop on distance education integrity would benefit faculty. D. Weinshilbourn agreed to reach out to M. Lewis, AIC member and participant in DE work on campus.
4. AIC members did not feel the AIC should serve as an arbiter on collegiality for faculty.
5. Meeting adjourned.
