Item	Discussion/Action Plan	Who's Responsible	Deadline
P2CAC Recommendation	Communication Studies- has requested to be aligned to Social & Behavioral Sciences CAC. - Curricular relationships to disciplines in Arts, Media, and Entertainment do not develop until upper division. In lower-division coursework, curricular relationships with Social and Behavioral Sciences predominate. Committee supports this change. Communications Media - Strike Communications Media since it no longer exists. Journalism- Rick sent an email to curriculum representative to get feedback from the department. Currently in Arts, Media and Entertainment. Will wait until discussion with Journalism occurs. Will consider at 9/26 meeting. Humanities- Is requesting to be aligned to Social and Behavioral Sciences rather than English, Humanities and Language Studies. Humanities is part of Global Studies Program along with International Relations (Political Science). Faculty are often minimally qualified in both Humanities and Philosophy or Humanities and History. Philosophy and Humanities currently share adjunct faculty. Requires change to recommendation. Committee supports this change. Economics- Committee has heard from Department Chair, who supports the current draft alignment. However, program faculty are split on their recommendations. Will consider at 9/26 meeting. Due to recommendation to change Humanities alignment, discussion about re-naming English, Humanities and Language Studies CAC. Committee also recommends change to the title of English, Humanities and Language Studies CAC to English and Language Studies CAC. The committee does not recommend a change to the title of the Behavioral and Social Studies CAC. A request for this change will be placed before the Academic Senate for its consideration. Process for revising and reviewing placement and CACs themselves. Suggestion to use program review cycle (4 years). Potential problems with this suggestion include: 1) students declaring majors and 2) applying to the campus. Currently on CCC Apply students have a list of all programs without CACs. Fall 19 is	Rick	9/26/18
